

Lughnasadh Meditation with the Circle of Coll Seed Group

July 29, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

Via Zoom

In the Celtic Wheel of the Year, we stand between the summer solstice and autumn equinox. We honor Lugh, the Celtic deity of light, and his foster-mother, Taltiu, who prepared the land for agriculture. Through the burning light of August, we celebrate the fruits of the harvest while also being reminded of the life-death-rebirth cycle that continues as the first bundles of grain are cut.

Join the Circle of Coll Seed Group for a guided Lughnasadh meditation that honors the Celtic deity Lugh. This is an opportunity to reflect upon what you are harvesting and what you will prepare in the coming months as the wheel turns toward autumn and winter.

To honor the sacred space of this meditation, the Zoom meditation room will close at 7:10 p.m.*
