

Alban Arthan Meditation & Celebration with the Circle of Coll

December 19, 2021, 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM

Via Zoom

We invite you to our Winter Solstice meditation and ceremony (Alban Arthan in the Druid tradition, is Welsh for “Light of Arthur.”) At this time of greatest darkness we welcome the return of light. The sun will begin to grow stronger and the days lengthen as the Wheel of the Year begins to turn towards the new life of spring.

Our Alban Arthan meditation will start at 3:30 pm, with a break at 4 pm, and the ceremony will start at 4:15 pm, three minutes before sundown.

As is our tradition, we will hold Eisteddfod, sharing stories, poetry and music following the rite.

This is an opportunity to connect with the Spirit of Alban Arthan and continue the journey throughout time and day of Druids. With blessings of Alban Arthan, /| Gail

Here is a link from the Order of Bards, Ovates and Druids about Alban Arthan

<https://druidry.org/druid-way/teaching-and-practice/druid-festivals/winter-solstice-alban-arthan>

If you would like more information about Druidry, please visit the OBOD website

<https://druidry.org/>. Also, for more information about the Circle of Coll, please visit our web site <http://circleofcoll.org>